

Utiform UK Plastering Machines are an International manufacturer of high performance construction equipment within the industries of plastering, rendering and floor screeding.

Established for over 30 years, Utiform has distributor outlets in every major city in the world, offering the highest levels of customer service and after-sales support that comes second to none. Frequently rated #1, we have the plastering, rendering and screeding equipment and high performance technology that your business can benefit from.

Here at Utiform we have a wide range of plastering machines and mixing and conveying pumps for any purpose. Please feel welcome to contact us about your machine plastering needs and we will be happy to help you.

Helping You Get Into Machine Plastering

At Utiform, we have a full range of pumps and machines that you can hire for any period at very competitive rates. We will show you precisely how to use the machine and instruct you in any material type so that you are up and running and confident in no time at all.

Feature list

- Sales and Service on all makes and models
- New and Used Plastering machines available

- Machine Hire
- Training and Demonstrations
- Fully Qualified Engineers
- Finance Available
- Tools and Accessories

Find out what Utiform can do for your business and contact us about your machine plastering needs today!